Brother Juan Salvador

Introduction:

The vision is being fulfilled.
It has been achieved
and will continue to be achieved.
We celebrate the vision
100 years of Marist Brothers' service to young people in America.
We celebrate Brother Terences 50th year as a Brother and Brother Juan's 50th year as a teacher.
The vision continues
in the dediction of the Marist Brothers and in their students.

MARIST BROTHERS'
AMERICAN CENTENARY

Archbishop Molloy High School

83-53 Manton Street, Briarwood, New York 11435-1697 (718) 441-2100

One hundred years ago a small group of Marist Brothers arrived in the town of Lewistown, Maine to begin teaching in St. Peter's elementary school. In 1892, six years after the arrival of the first Brothers, the pastor of St. Jean the Baptiste Church on Lexington Avenue and 76th Street in Manhattan, invited four Brothers to begin a grade school in his parish. Named in honor of the Patroness of the Brothers' American province, St. Ann's Academy formed the foundation for the tradition of academic and athletic excellence which have become the hallmarks of Archbishop Molloy High School.

As the Marist Brothers celebrate their one hundredth anniversary of service in the United States, each of us at Archbishop Molloy is afforded the opportunity to reaffirm the Marist heritage of our school. A tradition of respect for the integrity of each individual, of service to those less fortunate, of prayerful responses to Gospel values. In this way the Marist Brothers, lay teachers and religious women teaching at Molloy continue the vision of Blessed Marcellin Champagnat, the founder of the Brothers. A vision "to help young people to become good christians and good citizens."

Champagnat's vision is as relevant and needed today as it was one hundred years ago. It continues to challenge each Marist Brother, his colleagues and students to utilize their talents and energy to make Christ truly known and loved.

It is in realizing this that all we do at Molloy will really be "not for school but for life."

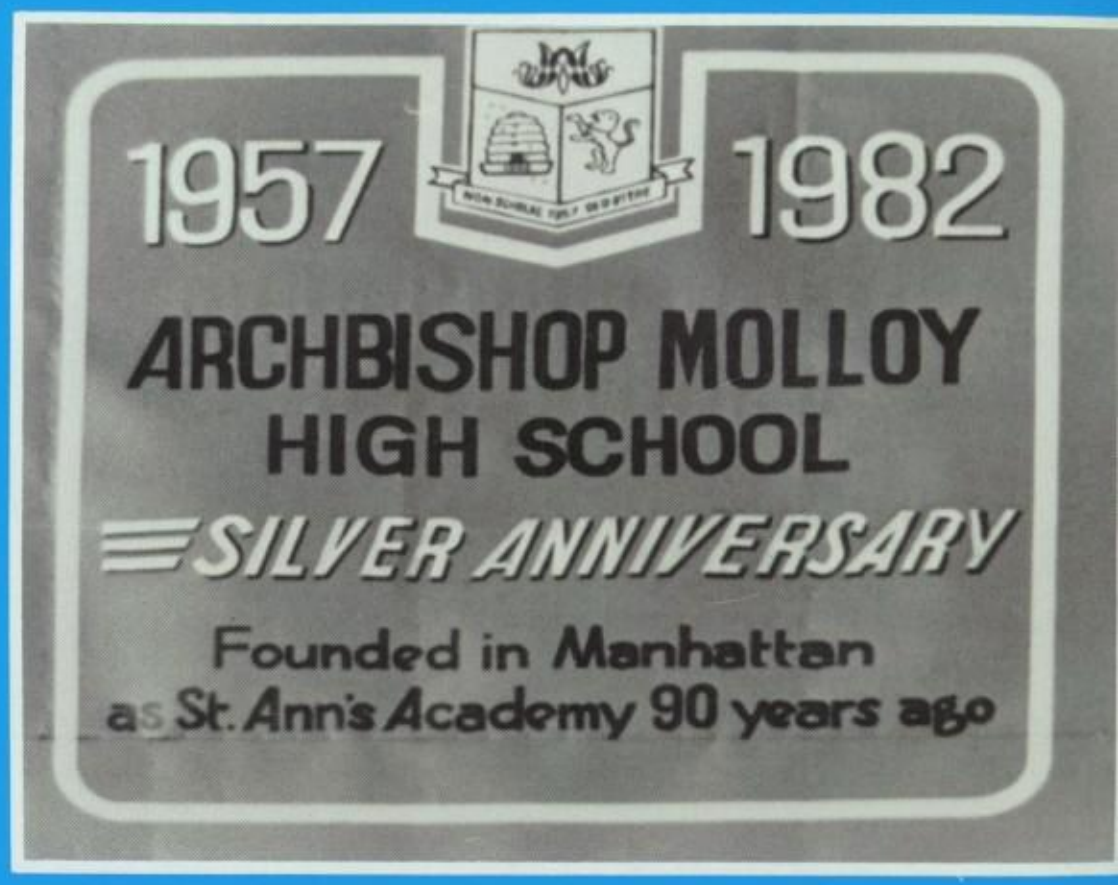
Bro. John Klein

In 1885 a band of Marist Brothers left France for work in Canada. From there they found service in French Canadian communities in New England such as the Hevey School in Manchester, N.H. (1911)

St. Ann's Hermitage in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. became the headquarters of the Marsit Brothers in the United States.

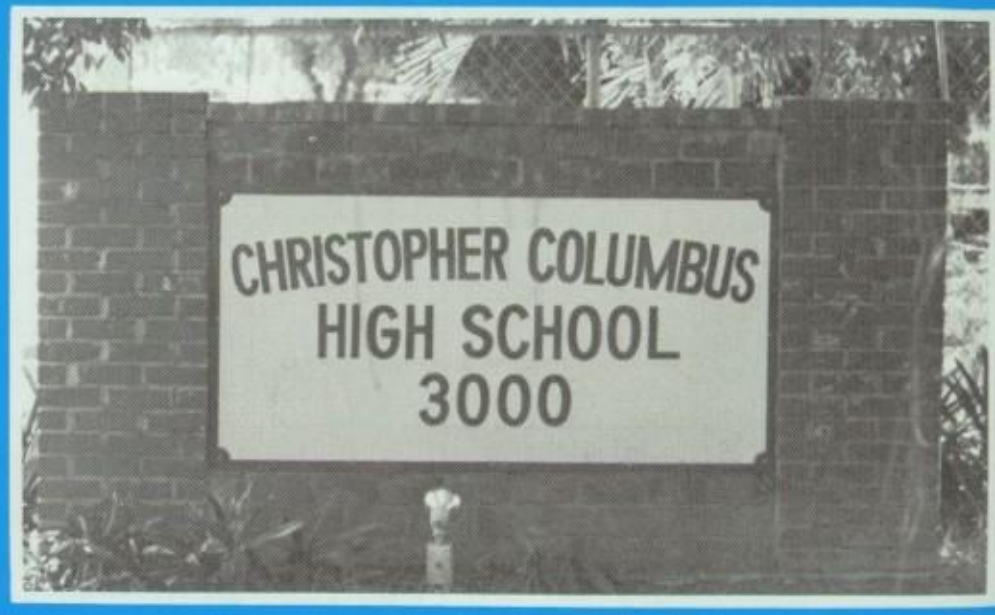
By the late '50's the yearly reception of large numbers of candidates necessitated the formation of a second U.S. Province of Brothers

Expansion continued to other sections of the country as well . . .



Archbishop Molloy High School was built in 1957.

Marist High School, Bayonne, N.J. (1954)



Christopher Columbus High School, Miami (1959)

St. Joseph's Academy, Brownsville, Tx. (1958)

Marist Brothers School, Kumamoto, Japan

St. Anthony's School, downtown Jersey City

Camp Marist, New Hampshire

Oglala Sioux Reservation, South Dakota

As educators, the brothers expanded their ministries to settings with specific needs . . .

Saga of St. Ann's Statue

In our schoolyard near the statue of Father Champagnat stands a statue of St. Ann, the saint for whom the old Academy was named. Those who have been to Esopus, N.Y. will remember that in the back courtyard of the mansion on the Brothers' property stands an identical statue of St. Ann, and it is about that statue, the original one which stood in the schoolyard of the old Academy, that this story is told:

Near the turn of the century, Brother Zephiriny, the founder of St. Ann's Academy, had prayed to that saint for a special favor, promising, that if the favor were granted, he would have her statue cast in France. The favor was granted; the statue was ordered. However, when it arrived in the port of New York, the duty on it was so high that Brother could not afford to pay it.

Undaunted, Zephiriny decided to enlist the aid of none other than President Theodore Roosevelt, and, having made himself very familiar with Teddy's writings and sayings, learning many of them by heart, Brother headed for our nation's capital.

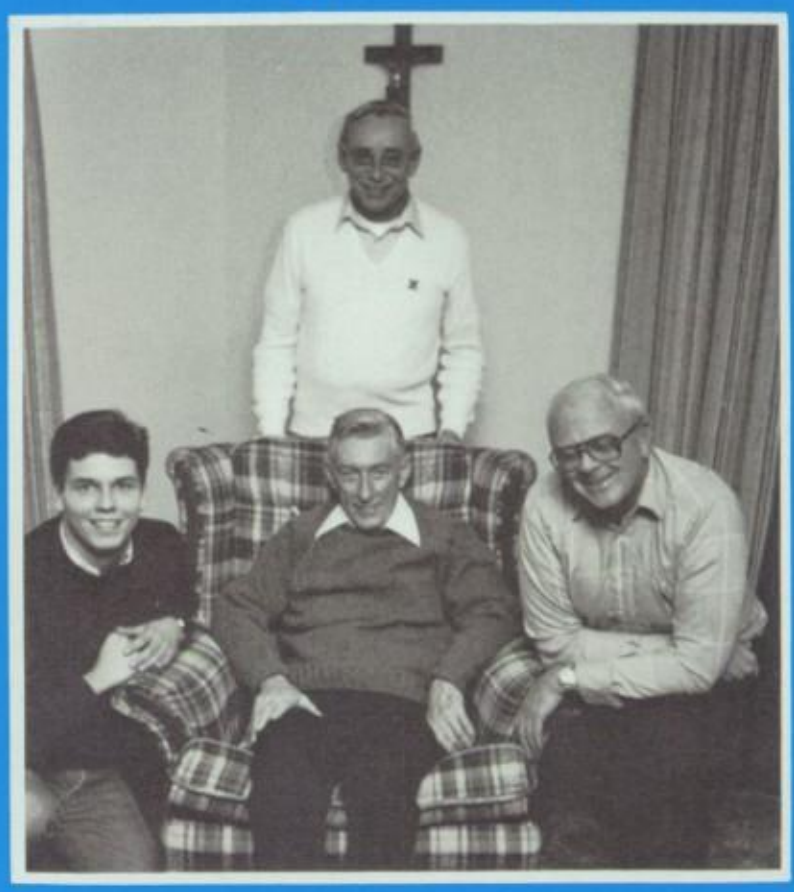
One day, while strolling past the White House, Brother surprised the Marist Father with whom he was walking, by announcing simply, "I am going in to see the President."

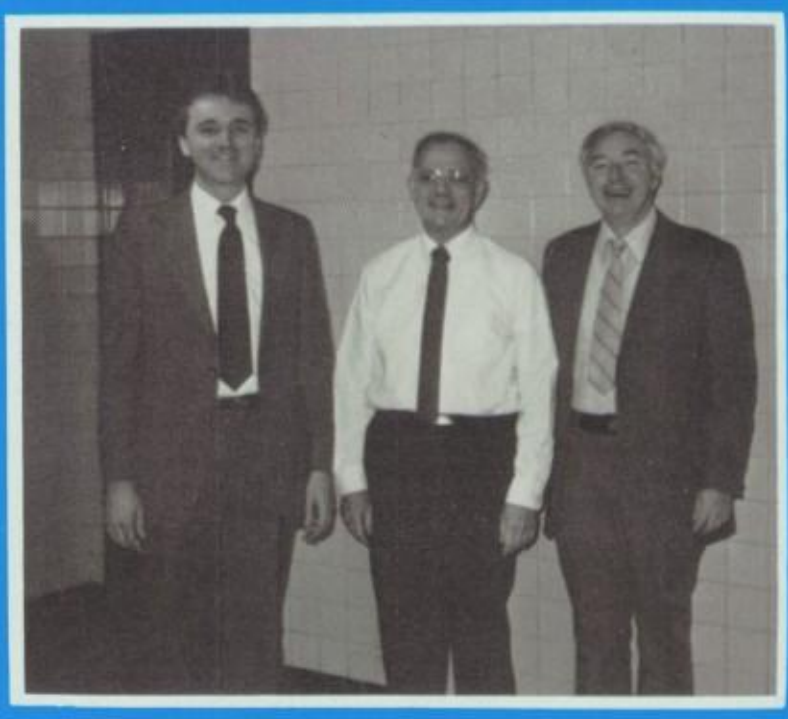
After engaging the doorman with his usual wit and charm, and explaining his intentions, Brother was left alone for a while. Shortly after, he was ushered in to President Roosevelt himself! A long chat ensued between these two remarkable personalities and Brother Zephiriny proved himself quite conversant in Teddy Roosevelt's writing and sayings. When he left the White House, he carried with him a photo of the President bearing the inscription: "I admire the courage of this man! T. Roosevelt."

A few days after Brother Zephiriny returned to New York, a deliveryman rang the Academy bell, asking Brother Zephiriny, "Where shall I unload this statue from France?" All expenses had been paid by the United State Government!

Bishop Mc Enteggart blesses the crucifixes to be placed in each classroom of the newly constructed Archbishop Molloy High School.

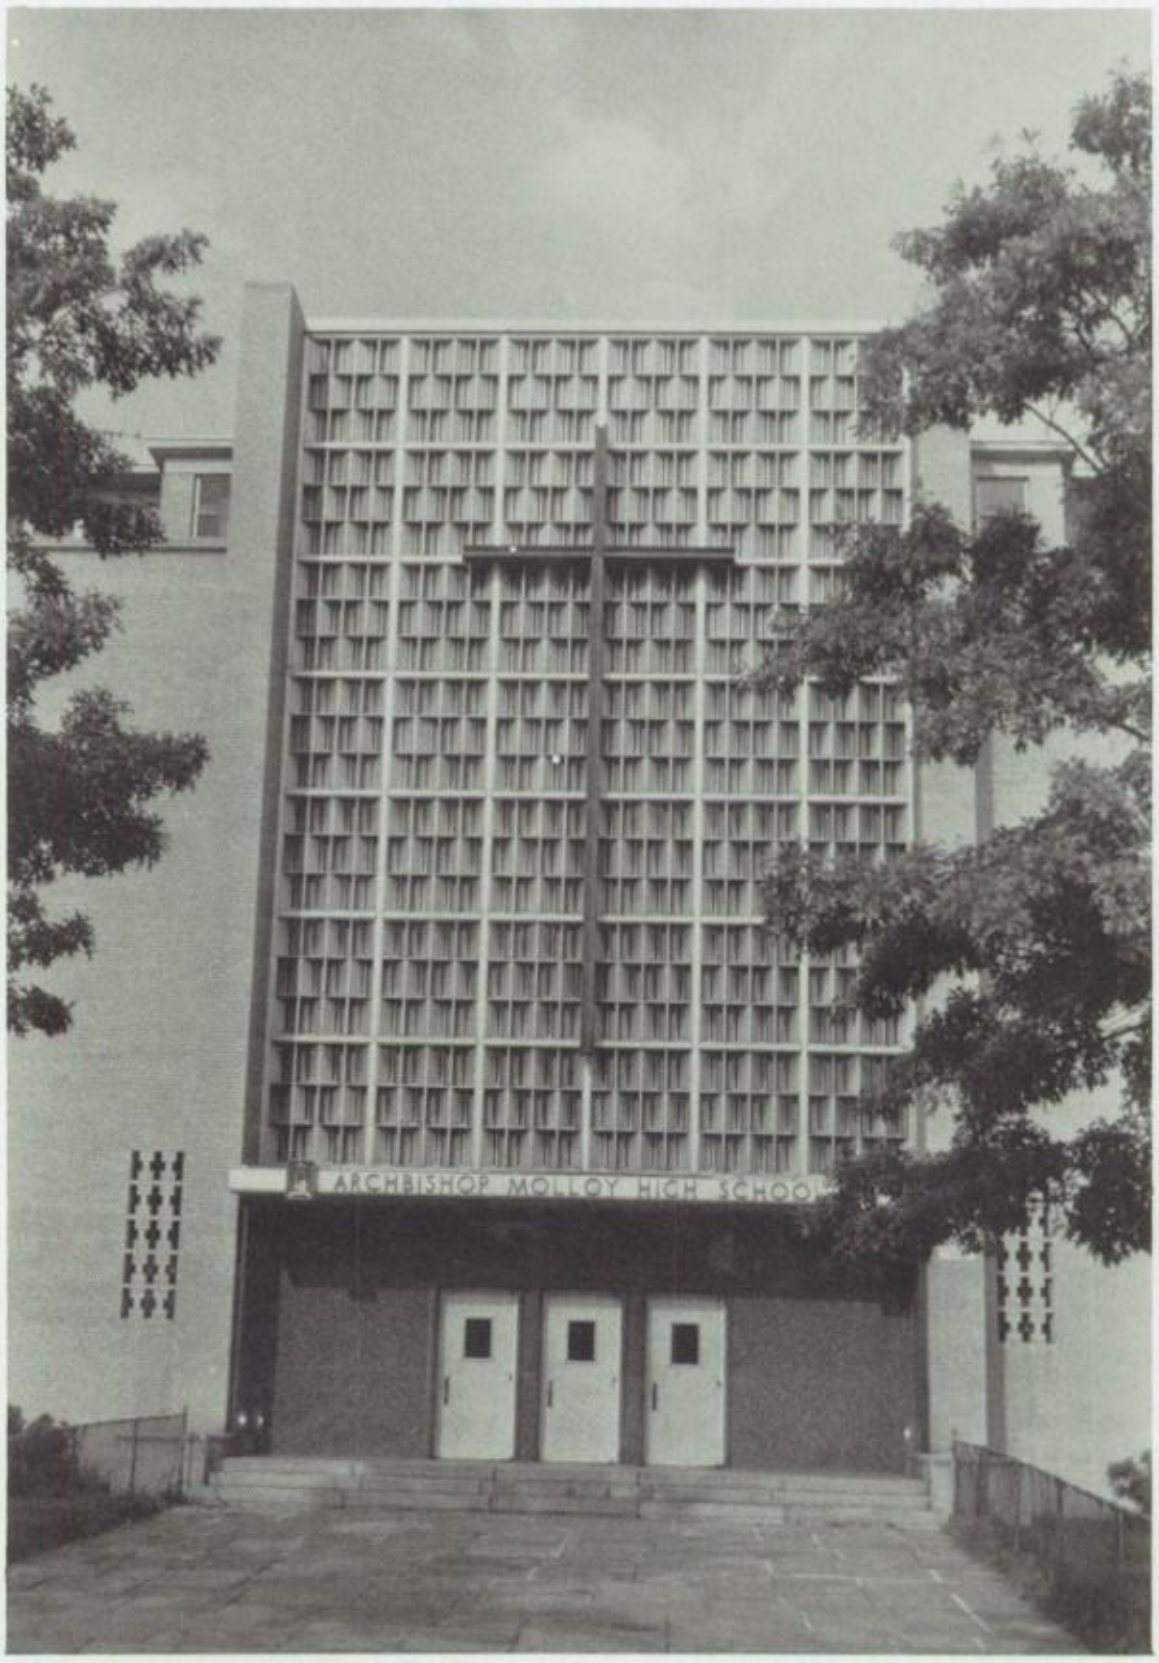
The Marist Brothers Of Molloy Today



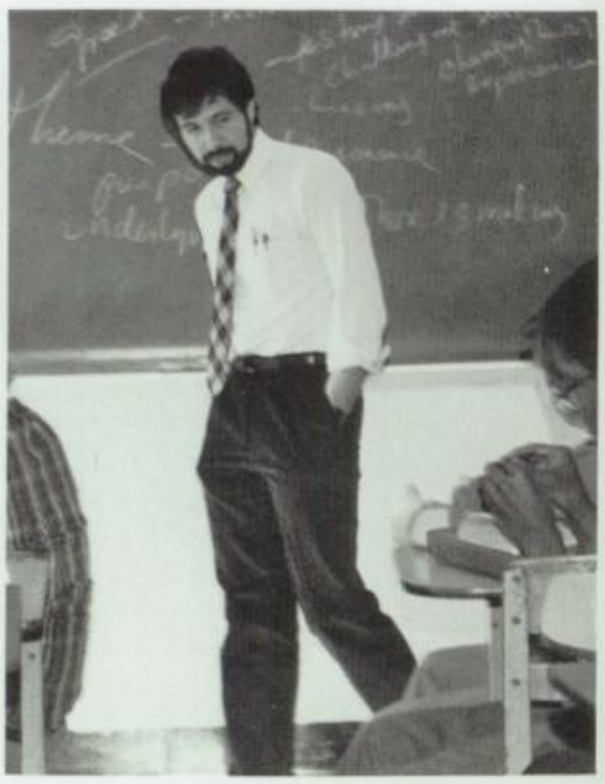


The pioneers who brought the Marist tradition to these shores did not know what lay ahead. Last August Marist College in Poughkeepsie was the scene of the Centenary Convocation of the U.S. Marists. They looked back they saw where they are today, and they continue to nurture the spirit of brotherhood that can carry them into tomorrow. Questions remain; dedication endures.

Continuing The Vision



Champagnat's vision is alive at



Archbishop Molloy High School.

We see it.

We believe it

We live it every day

We ARE the vision being fulfilled!

AS ONE OF MOLLOY'S MOST RECENT GRADUATES, I WAS ASKED TO TALK ABOUT OUR MOTTO "NON SCHOLAE SED VITAE."

AS WE ALL KNOW, THIS TRANSLATES INTO ENGLISH AS "NOT JUST FOR SCHOOL, BUT FOR LIFE."

OH! NOW I GET IT! I THOUGHT IT WAS "OR FOR LIFE."

BILL

OF COURSE, THIS HAS BEEN INTERPRETED MANY WAYS BY OUR STUDENTS.

I'M LATE!

UG!

OUTTA THE WAY!

OW!

FOR SOME, MOLLOY HAS TAUGHT THEM HOW TO MOVE IN CROWDED PLACES.

MANY HAVE FOUND IT VALUABLE TO LEARN HOW TO TALK TO AUTHORITY FIGURES...

JUST TELL ME WHAT YOU DID!

I..UH..I... UH... WELL... I... UHH... JUST

... AND LEARN HOW TO ADMIT THEIR MISTAKES LIKE A MAN.

LUNGS AT WORK

...SO I WALKED IN THERE AND SAID, "LOOK, I DON'T LIKE THE SYSTEM AND IT'S YOUR TOUGH LUCK!

WOW!

ANOTHER WAY STANNERS HAVE LEARNED TO PREPARE THEMSELVES FOR LIFE IS IN LEARNING HOW TO SEEK HELP FROM OTHER PEOPLE IF NEEDED.

PSYCHIATRIC HELP 5¢ DR. LUCY VAN PELT

THE DOCTOR IS IN

IT ALL STARTED WHEN MY FRIENDS FOUND OUT THAT I STILL WATCH "HE-MAN"...

RESPONSIBILITY IS INDIRECTLY TAUGHT IN EVERY LONG TERM ASSIGNMENT THAT WE HAVE WEEKS TO DO.

NATURALLY, MOLLOY ALSO TAUGHT FUN THINGS LIKE GETTING INVOLVED IN SPORTS.

WE'VE LEARNED TO GIVE OF OURSELVES.

WE HAVE BEEN EXPOSED TO POLITICAL AND MORAL ISSUES.

MOLLOY HAS MADE US STAND UP AND FIGHT FOR WHAT WE BELIEVE IN!

FINALLY, I HOPE, WE'LL ALL LEAVE MOLLOY KNOWING NOT TO TALK UNLESS TALKED TO!

THANK YOU

The staff of the 1987 Blue and White would like to express our thanks to all of those people who helped in the production of this book. In a particular we would like to take this opportunity to recognize and thank:

Br. John Klein, our Principal, Br. Roy, Mr. Jones and Br. Angelo, our Assistant Principals for their continued support and cooperation throughout the school year. We would also like to thank the staffs of the Continental Photography Studio and the Josten's Publishing Company for their assistance and advice.

Lastly we would like to say thank you to Br. Thomas Potenza and Br. Joseph Anselm for their help in the writing of the theme and Marist Centenary sections of the yearbook.

WHAT GOD HATH PROMISED

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through,
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.

OUR BIG BROTHER
PRAYER

Molloy Alumni

Dave Fontana in uniform

Hello Babee!

So then I told my freshmen wha
I wanted for Christmas — thre turtle doves, two French hen
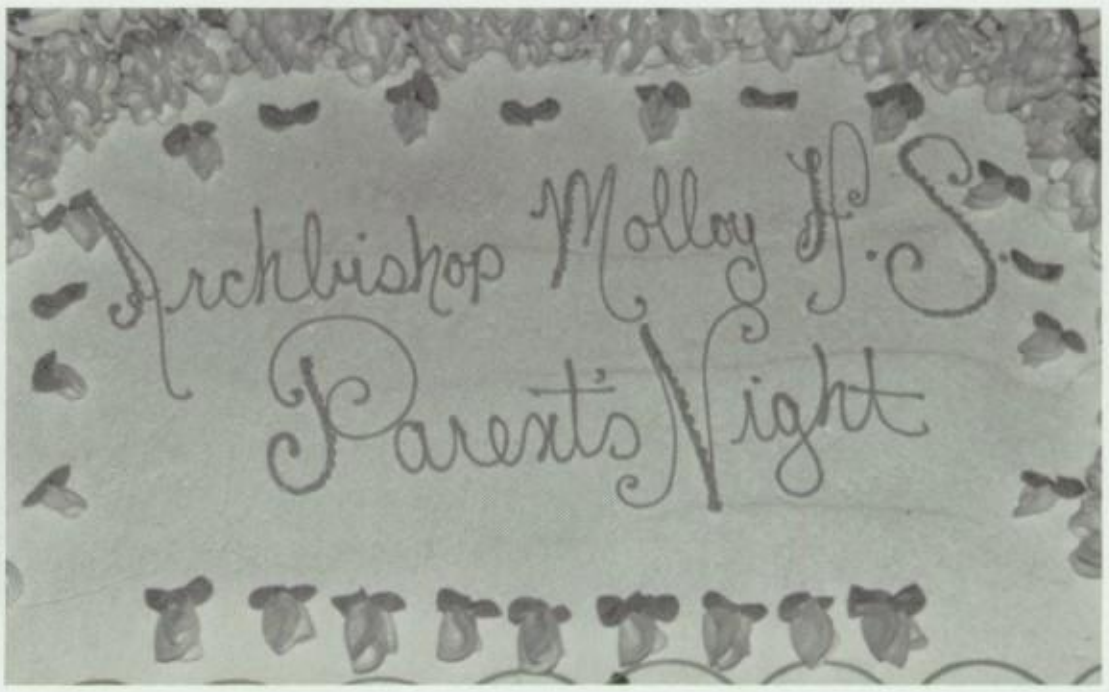
and a partridge in a pear tree
And they believed me!

Parents Club

Brother John Venturella, our moderator

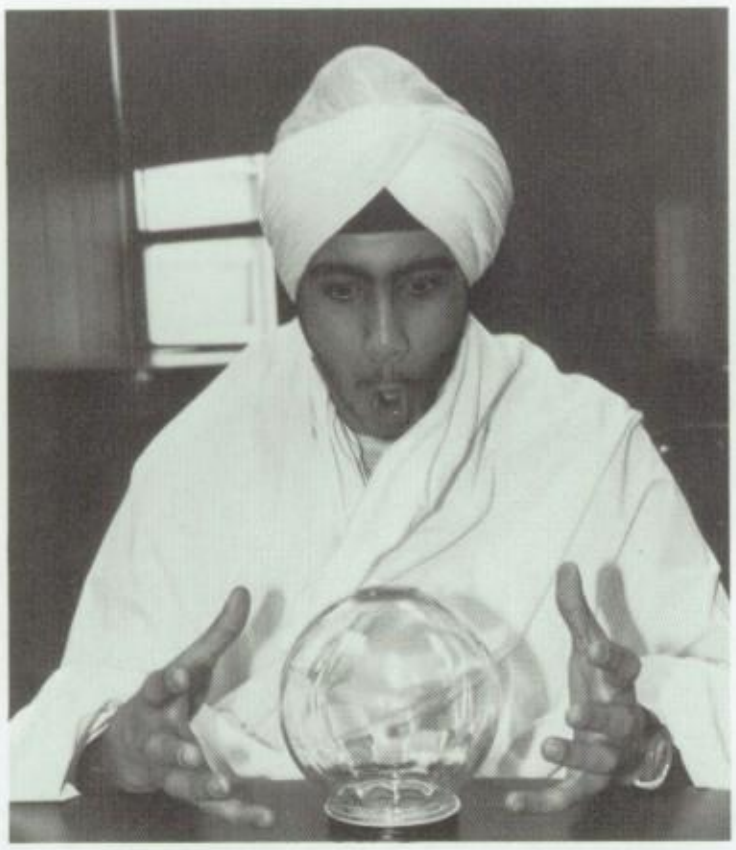


Parent Dance Dessert

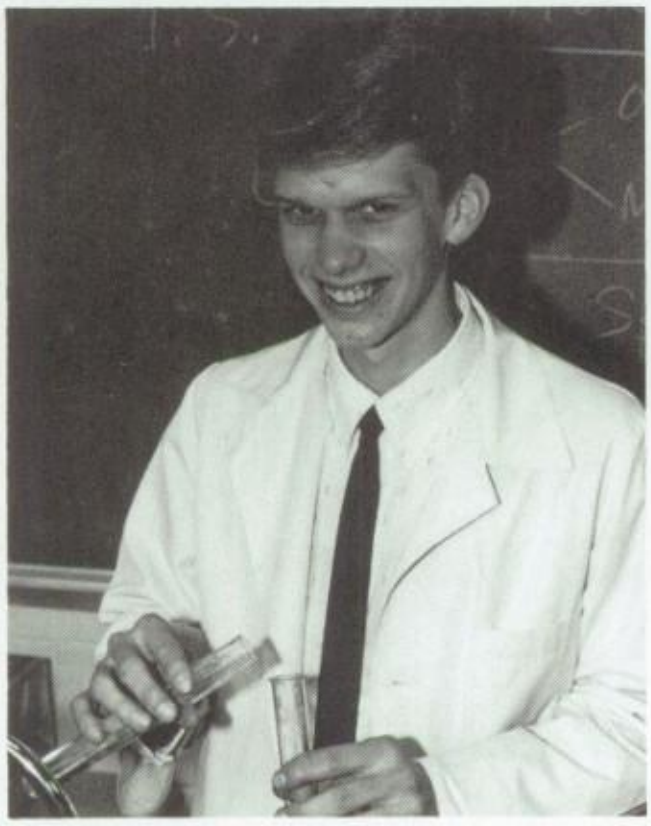
So then I told my broker .....

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jesaitis

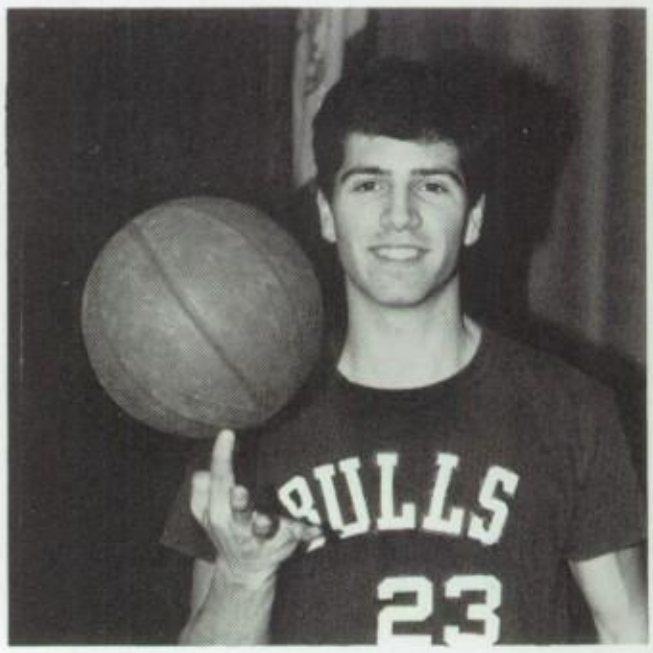
What Does The Future Hold?!?



"As our time at Stanner High draws to a close let's take a peek into the future. Allow me, Sunjit Chawla give you an insight on what a few of our fellow classmates will be doing in the years to come."

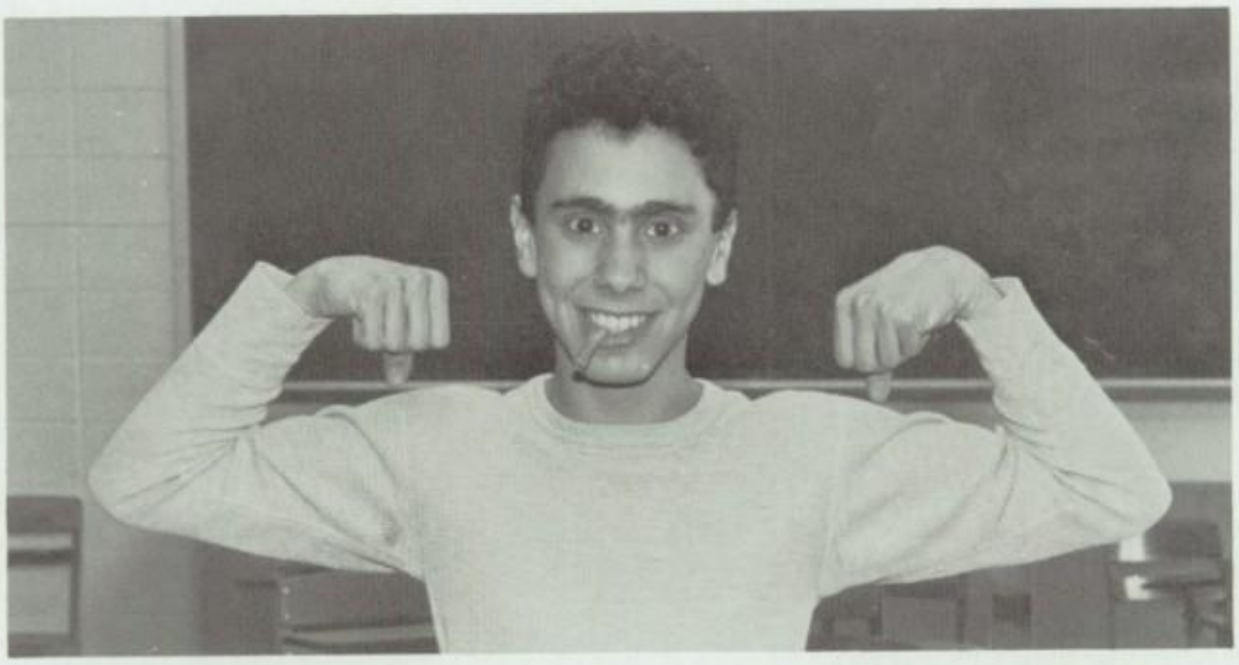


A nuclear physicist: "Laugh at me, I'll show them!"



The next Michael Jordan: "who said man wasn't made to fly?"

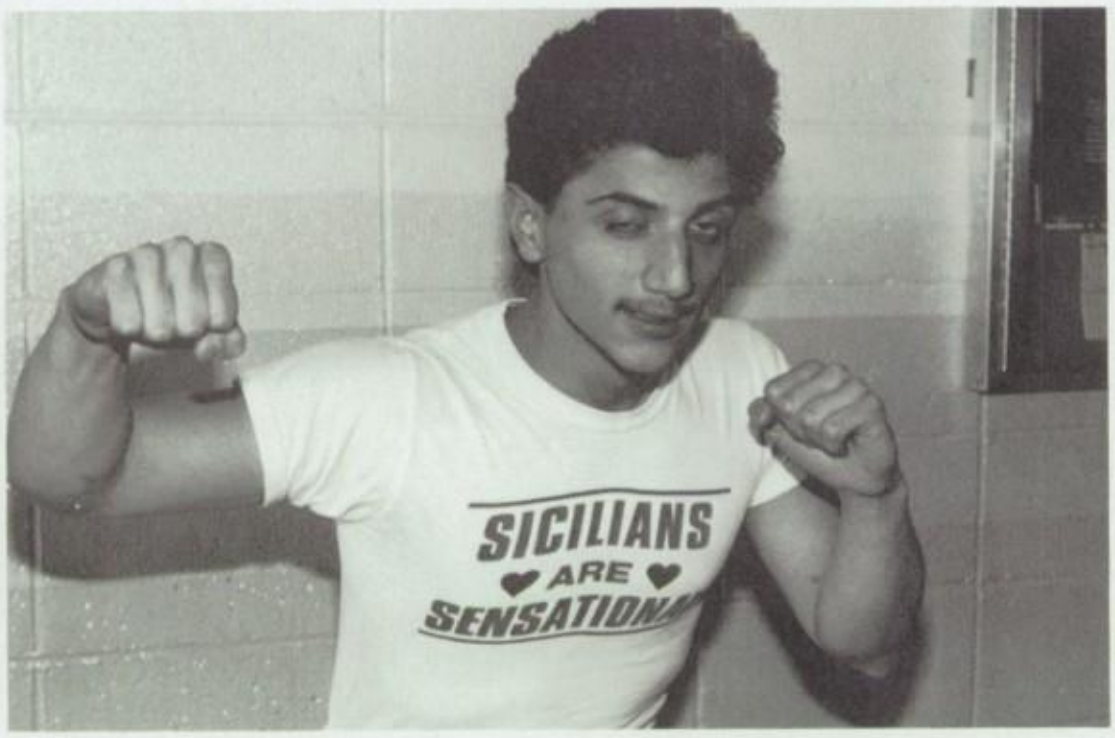
Another Guccione and Hefner: "Hey girls, your place or ours?"



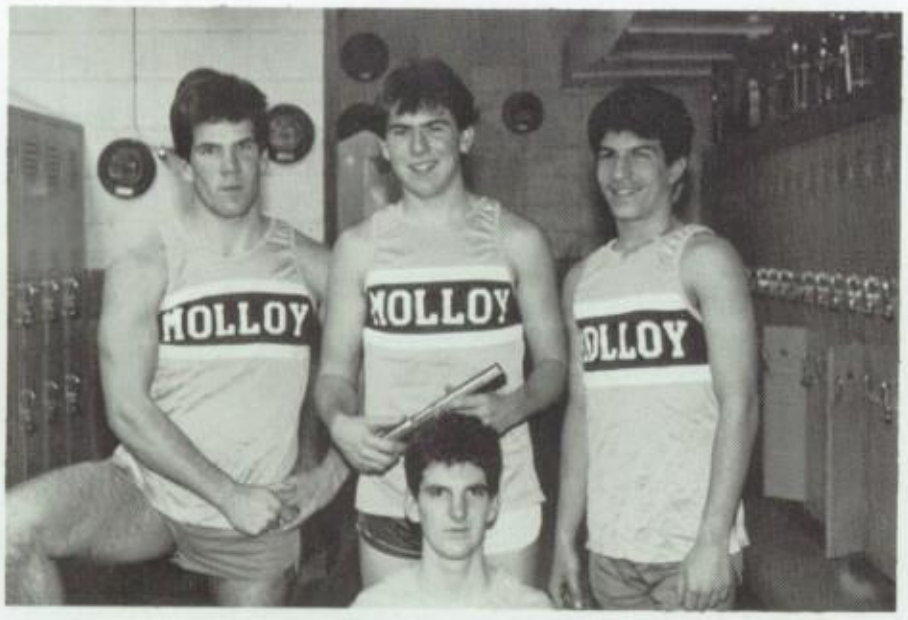
A future (very future) Mr. Universe: "I show the world what I'm made of!"

One of Molloy's custodial engineers: "I love my job, and just think I was going to play for the Knicks."

The next Karate Kid: "Those karate lessons really paid off!"

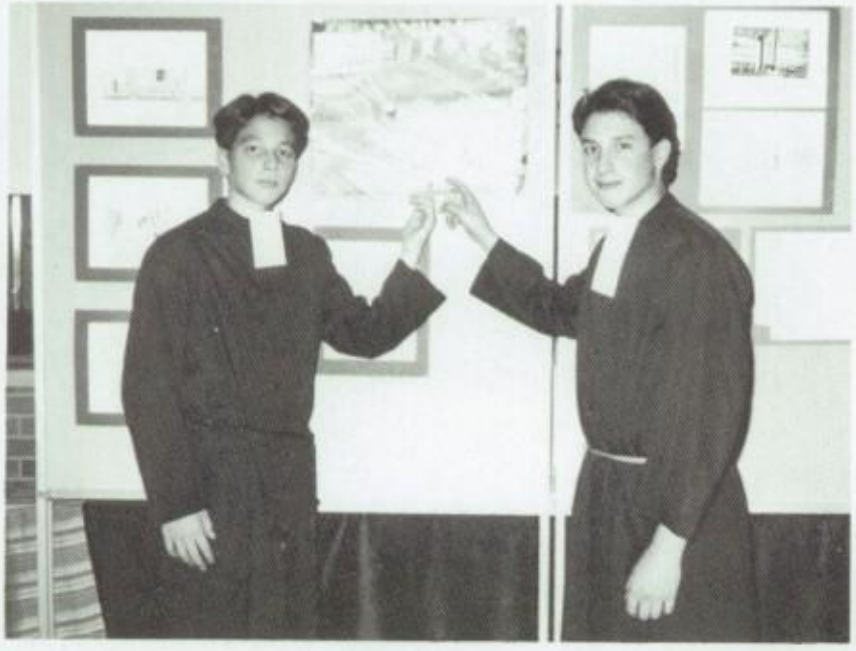


Another Sly Stallone: "Yo Adrain!"

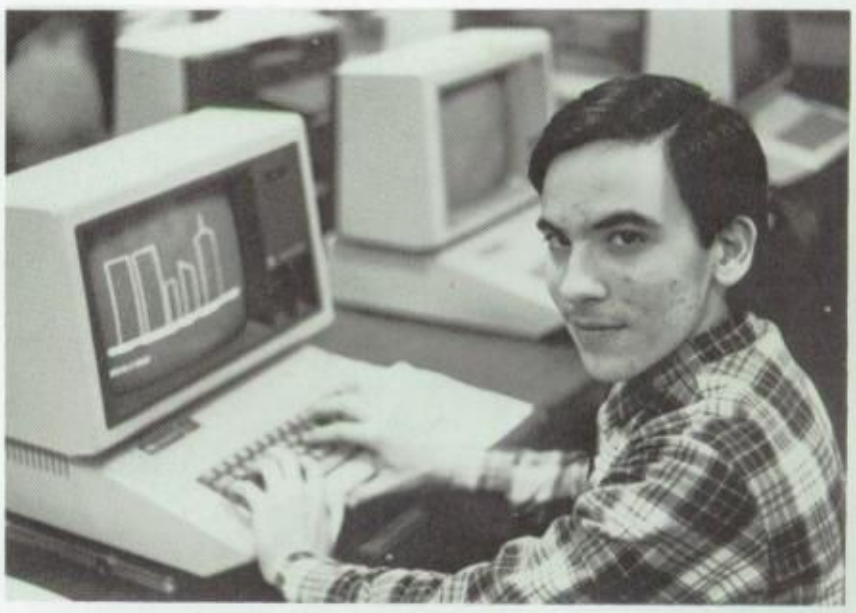


Future Olympians: "Going for the Gold"

A convict: "why didn't I listen in Diorio's Class?"



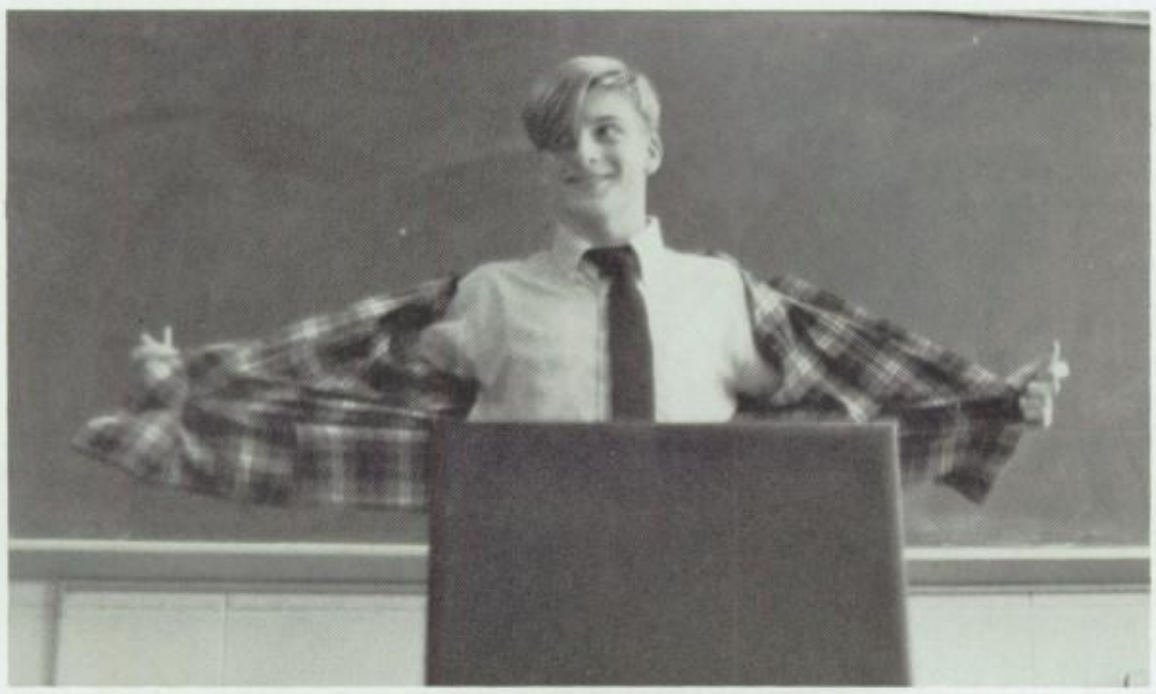
Molloy's future Principal and Assistant Principal: "Gentlemen, no more ties and as of Monday, the school is co-ed!"



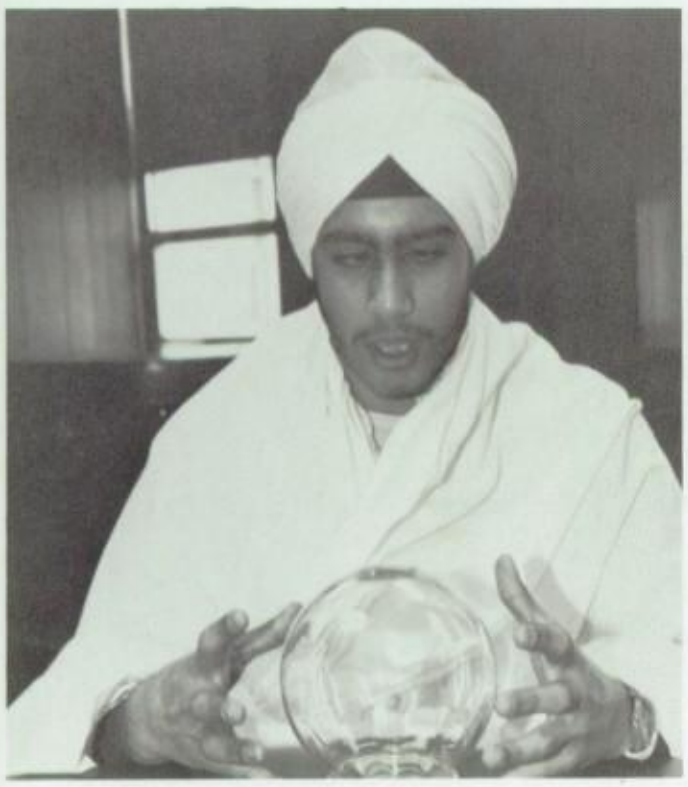
Computer whiz: "Would you like to play a game?"

A crook or a President: "My fellow Americans . . . "

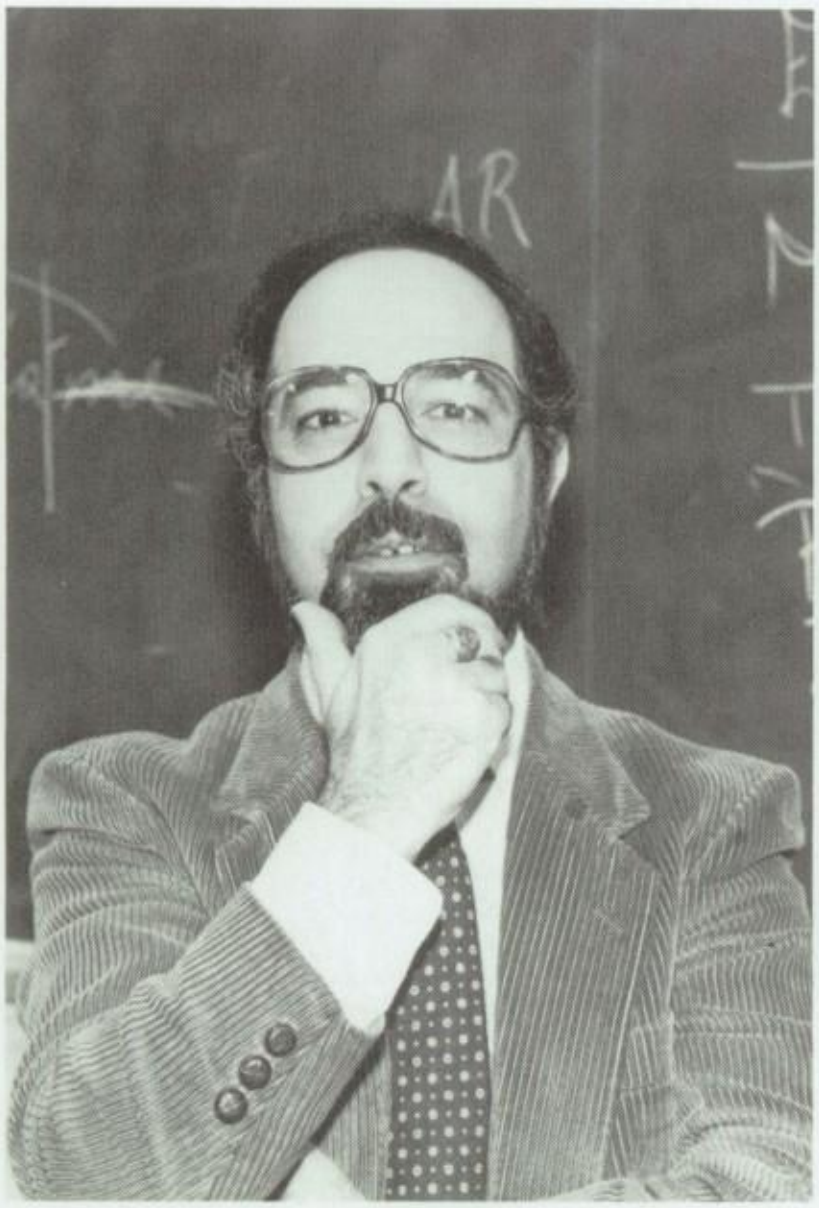
An executive Businessmen: "Buy 2,000,000 shares of Kal Kan."



A stripper at Chippendales: "If my friends could see me!"



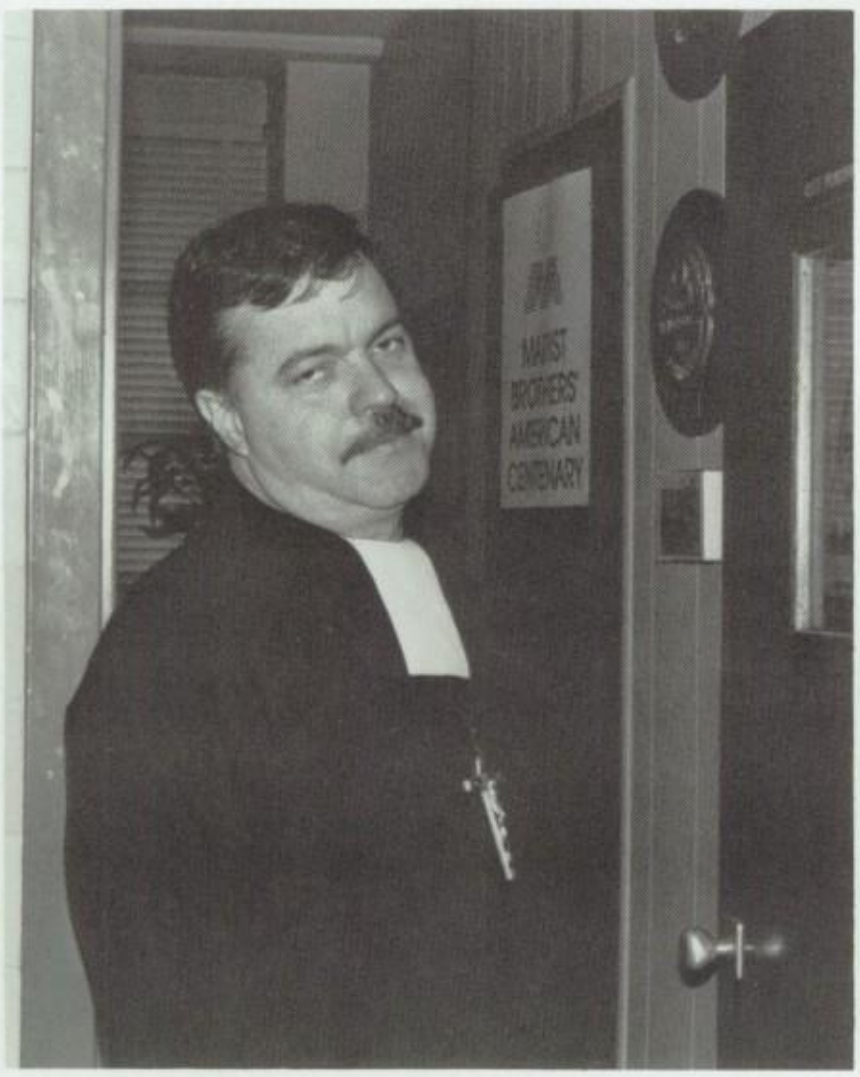
"Well by the look on my face you can tell my vision is fading. Hopefully, in the future, I'll achieve kharma, and we'll see what the rest of the Class of '87 is doing at our future reunions!"



Now where did I put my hair piece.

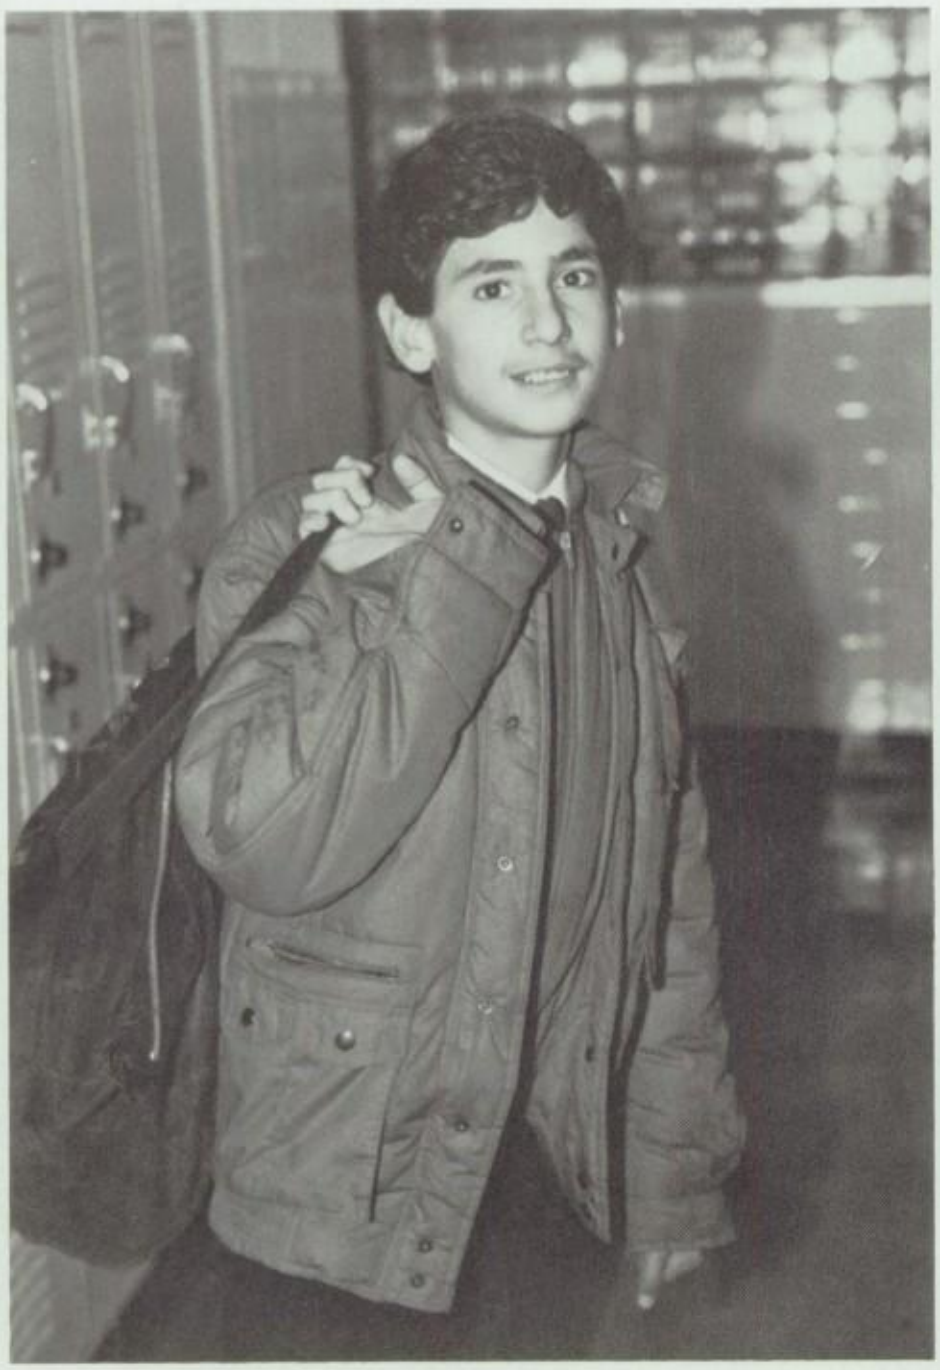
Gimme back my copy of Playgirl!

The Three Amigos



A face only a mother could love!

Boy, you guys are really bright!



The bag? ... No, there's no food there, Colbert!

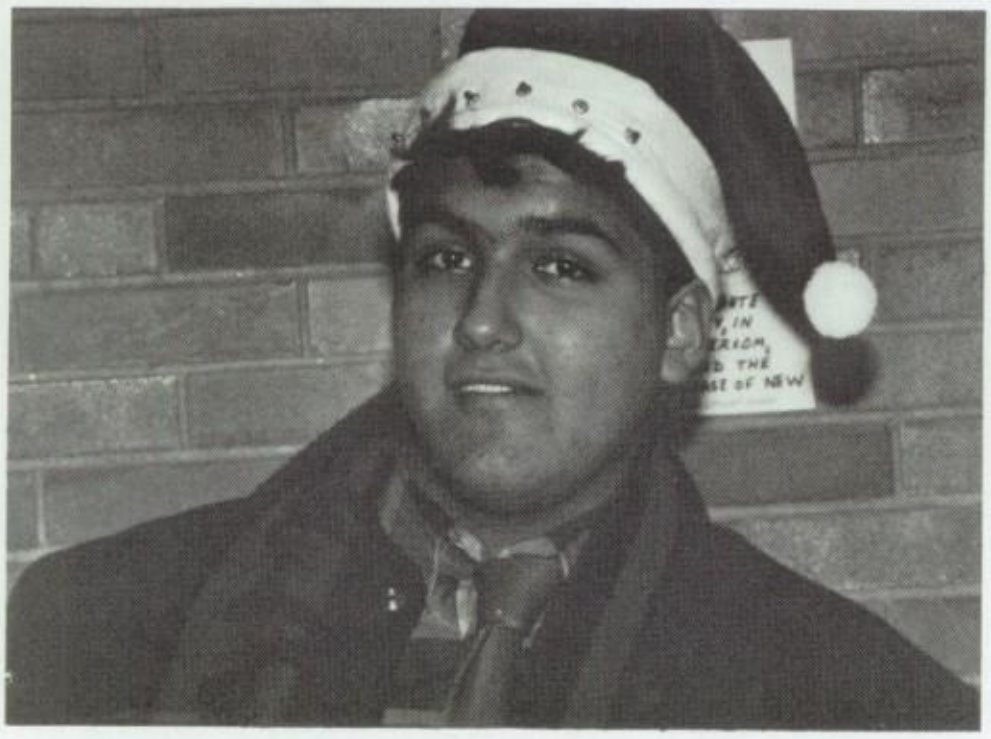
Brother Ron, we want to go to Greece!

The Ex-Lax Poster Child

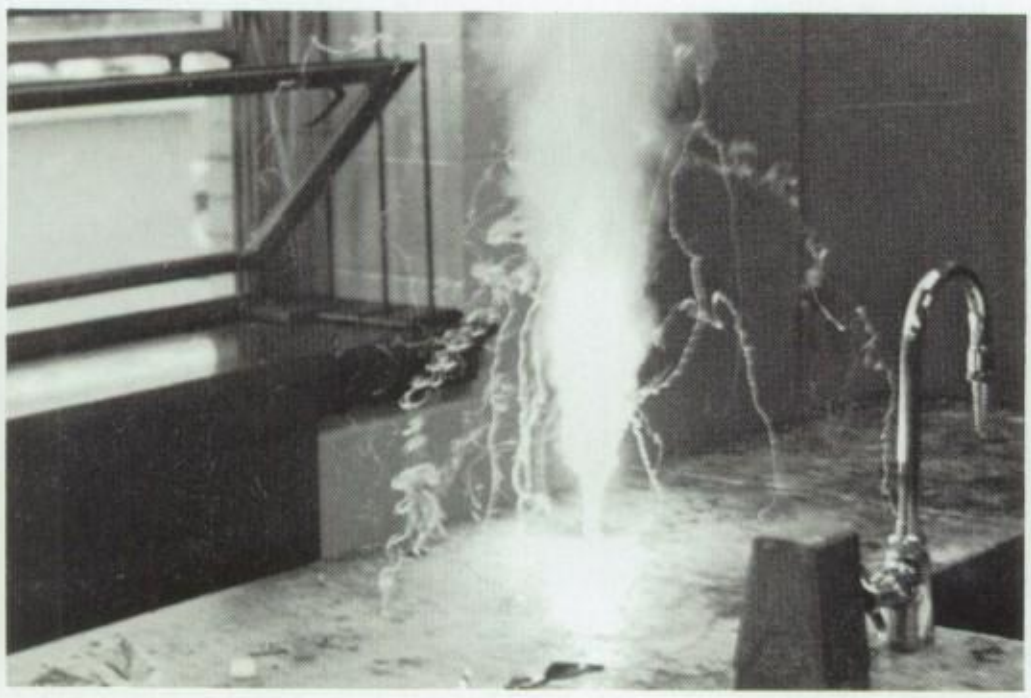
Cousin It!

We Fear No Pigeons!

Fresh from Italy, synthetic grapes!



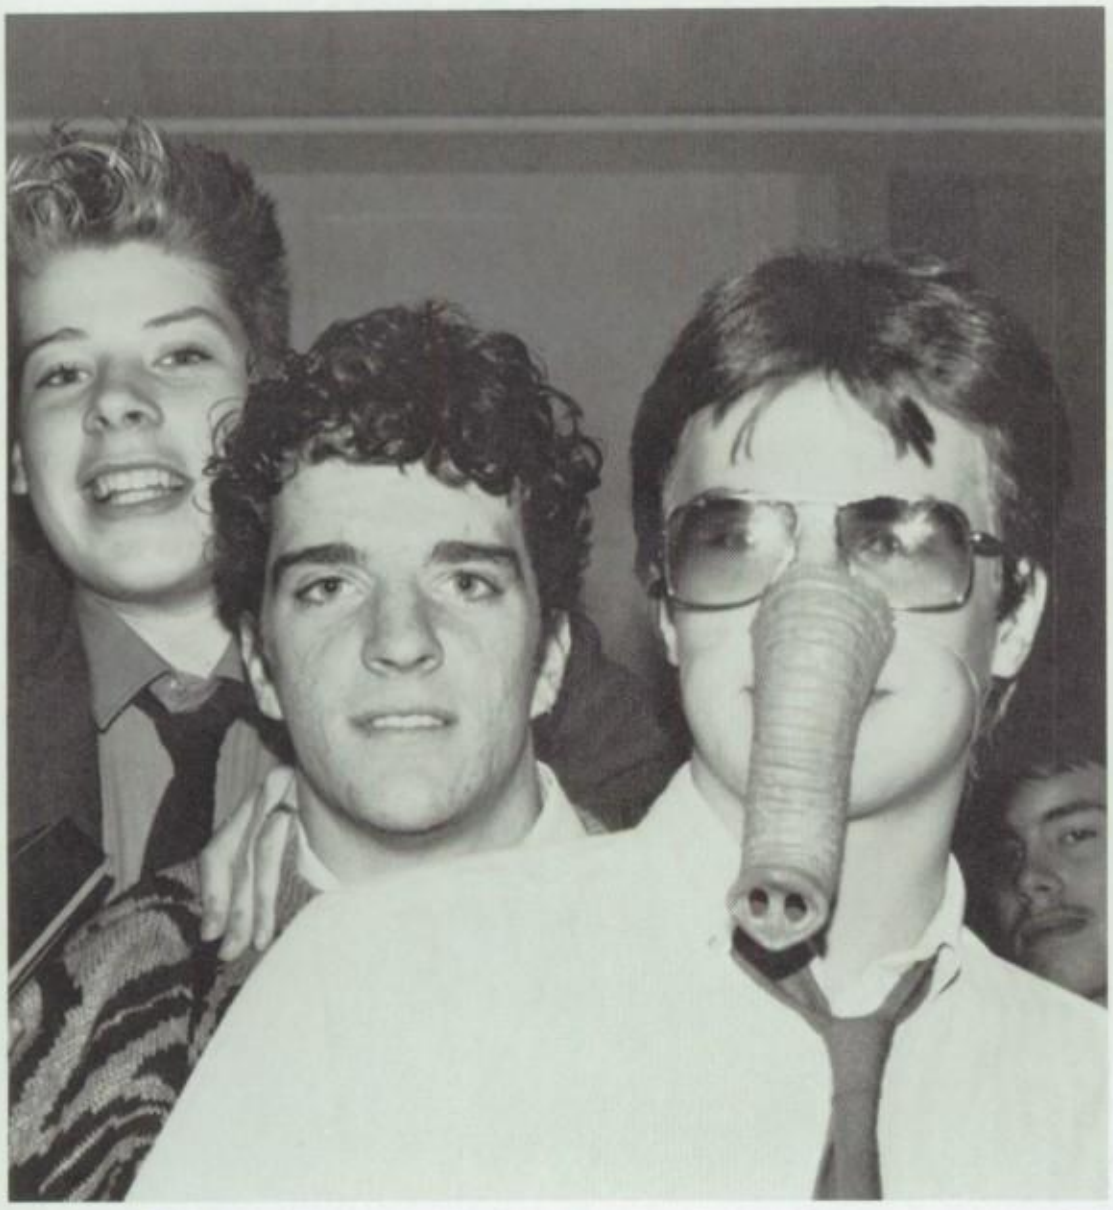
No, I'm not really Santa Claus.



Brother Paul strikes again!

Ties By Lipset

I'm an even slower runner than I look.



Dumbo lives!!

Krok taught me everything I know.

All right! I'll donate to the Stanner Excellence Campaign.

You should see me when I'm excited!

The Vision Continues . . .

Molloy's ever-expanding Service Program remains a strong testimony to the Christian ideal and to the vision of Marcellin Champagnat.

And so, to the many dedicated volunteers who have participated in this year's Service Program- we thank you, we salute you, and we dedicate this book to you.
